drawn—Thomas D. Jones Asked About the "Harvester Trust" and His Connections With Zinc Business.

Washington, July 6.—Three of the five members of the federal reserve board nominated by President Wilson today, including the chairman, Charles D. Miller, and A. C. Miller were confirmed late today by the senate.

The nominees of Paul M. Warburg of New York and Thomas D. Jones of Chicago have not been acted upon by the senate, and currency committee and probably will not be before the end of the week. It was stated in high official circles tonight that Warburg would ask the president to withdraw his nomination.

He became a director of that company in April, 1909, purchasing one share to qualify as a director. He became a director of the company in 1910, when McCormack, an old friend of his, had fully approved all the actions of the directors. He was a director and believed that they were proper and legal. Mr. Jones announced that he was in accord with the policy of the Harvester company at present and said there was no difference of opinion between the directors. He received no compensation, he said, other than the nominal director's fee.

Nothing to Gain or Lose.

When elected he received the votes of the majority of the controlling stock in the company, George W. Perkins, Cyrus H. McCormack and William Deering. The company has since been dissolved. Mr. Jones said he had lost to lose for gain by the decision of the courts in the anti-trust suit in the Harvest case.

In the Zinc Business.

Mr. Jones Before Committee. Prior to 1887, Mr. Jones told the committee, he owned and was president of the Wisconsin Zinc and Lead Co. of Point, Wis., capitalized at $400,000. The company was then in a state of dissatisfaction of a doubt. The brother-in-law of Mr. Jones, who was then in the city, was taken over by the New Jersey Zinc Co., which was then capitalized at $4,000,000, and the Jones brothers were then taken over by the New Jersey Zinc Co. for their share of the Wisconsin company.

Mr. Jones appeared in answer to the question of the committee and was asked to disclose some of his relations to two large business enterprises, one of which was the International Harvester company, now being prosecuted by the government as a trust. Mr. Jones said

SUFFRAGETTE LITERATURE
FOR KING AND QUEEN.

Showered on Them from Balcony Before Edinburgh Detectives Interfered.

Edinburgh, July 6.—The suffragettes took advantage of the visit here today of King George and Queen Mary to shower them with literature against monarchy and barbarous government.

LONDON, July 6.—The Rev. Rectorial of J. Campbell, vicar of the City Temple, has been elected Moderator of the Bazaar for the Relief of the Poor, which will be held at the Royal Albert Hall on Friday next.

The usual suffragette demonstration of the women of the royal couple with suffragette literature was the feature.

At the first session of a trolley in a house opposite the station, and as the royal carriage emerged from the depot, a number of suffragettes appear. They seized them, spoiling their aim. Some of the handbills fluttered into the street.

Lyndhurst Road church, Hampstead, the Rev. J. H. Shakespeare and several other ministers have sent a letter to Princess Asquith appealing to him to put an end to the forcible feeding of suffragette prisoners.

The writers declare that the employment of forcible feeding is barbarous and that it has proved to be regarded as a deterrent, it has proved over them. When looking up, saw the women struggling in the arms of the officers. They were removed to the police station and taken to the court. The officers gave them a mixed reception of blows and mingled with hooting.

They were called by the names of Lock and Owen. Among their misdeeds was that they had been seen to kiss. The judge showed King George that women were being persecuted for defending their freedom.

As regards it as a dangerous and "exasperating element" they continue "and in present deplorable state of our country, it is necessary that we should see parliament adjourn, possibly over the summer holidays, so that the feeding is going on in English prisons. We assure you that the growth of public opinion is a great danger to our state, it among otherwise peaceable and law-abiding people, the greatest social danger of our time."
